The Last Of The Wallendas

Synopsis

The "Great Wallendas" was one of the most famous daredevil circus acts in history. The Last of the Wallendas is Delilah Wallenda's personal, colorful and poignant story of circus life, her eccentric grandfather Karl and a family wracked by headline tragedies. She brings us behind closed doors to see the Wallendas' fights, affairs, divorces, bigamy, suicides and insanity throughout the years. Delilah Wallenda tells the inside story of how Karl created and performed the dangerous seven-person human pyramid, then lived with the high wire tragedy that left his son-in-law and nephew dead and his adopted son permanently paralyzed. She reveals how Karl's death and its consequences affected his family and her own subsequent fight to save the circus. Delilah has gained fame as the only woman to perform Karl's stunts, taking over from her mother, Jenny, who quit performing because of Karl's obsession to perform "the seven." She continues in the Wallenda tradition, performing on the high wire and continuing to thrill audiences.

Customer Reviews

This is a well told story by the authors. I got to know the real people and how their lives unfolded behind the scenes. Excellent book. Well written.

I like biographies, and this is one wonderful one. What an incredible insight into the family who walk the highwire with no net. Nicely written.

This is an amazing book about an amazing family. I recommend it to everyone.

Loved this book, I really enjoyed this book ! I also liked all the pictures and the family tree. After reading this book I looked for more books on this amazing family. I didn't find many but I always check to see if there's anything new released or in the process of being released ! I recommend this to anyone who likes adventure !
