Customer Reviews

I have read the book, and as a expedition member in 1974/75 it brought back many happy memories. It has taken me nearly thirty years to obtain and read the book about the expedition I was involved with. My views are unashameadly biased, but essentialy the book is a accurate journal of the problems that can beset any large expedition. The advice and experiences of the author are true and unbiased, reflecting the trials and tribulations of people brought together in sometimes trying circumstances. Have no doubt, read the book and revel in its truth.
